

community be a part of it!

Over 16,000 Commonwealth Scholars and Fellows have been funded by the UK government through the CSC since 1959. They have gone on to become academics, scientists, writers and leaders in government, major NGOs and business. Being part of the CSC community gives you a unique opportunity to network with a diverse range of talented people around the Commonwealth.

Commonwealth Scholars on Facebook

Commonwealth Scholars, Fellows and alumni can also keep in touch through the Commonwealth Scholars Facebook group at www.facebook.com

Share your news and research activities

Tell us about your research projects, conferences and prizes so that we can inform the rest of the CSC community by:

- featuring your news in Commonwealth Scholarships News and on our website
- sending out a network email if you are seeking collaboration or information

Be an active alumnus

Keep in touch with the CSC community

Please let us know when you change your postal or email address. This will enable us to keep you informed of our alumni activities, to contact you if any events are planned in your area, and to keep you updated by sending you Commonwealth Scholarships News.

Share your career progress with other alumni

Tell us about your career developments by emailing us and completing alumni questionnaires so that we can:

- share your news with the CSC community by including it in Commonwealth Scholarships News and on our website
- ensure up-to-date information can be included in the Directory of Commonwealth Scholars and Fellows
- use your career progress to evaluate the impact of Commonwealth Scholarships and Fellowships, helping us develop and strengthen the programme for future recipients

The alumni section of the CSC website at www.cscuk.org.uk/alumni.asp has information on membership benefits, the Directory, and other resources.

You can also find out details of upcoming events and alumni chapter activities in your area on our news page at www.cscuk.org.uk/news/news.asp
